

MALAGNE ARCHAEPARK

Car park

Coach park
4 parking spots

Maestro

Dogs admitted

2,000 years ago, the Gallo-Roman town of Malagne was one of Northern Gaul's largest farms.

Today, the Archaeopark leads you on a voyage into the daily life of the Gallo-Romans!

Set on the heights of Rochefort, the park's well-preserved remains stand in picturesque scenery.

Highlights include a reconstructed barn and forge, Roman gardens and kitchen gardens, crops, livestock, arts & crafts and experimental archaeology workshops.

Check out the full Malagne diary at www.malagne.be.

Information for individuals

Opening times

From March 30th to November 3rd: on weekends, during Belgian school holidays and public holidays from 10.30 to 18.00 (last admission 16.30). Closed on Mondays (except public holidays)

Price

(except on theme days) adults €7.50 • 60+ €6.50 • children €6 • Free audio guide (EN, FR, NL)

Tour length

2 hrs

Information for groups

Price

(except on theme days) adults €6.50 • 60+ €5.50 • children €5

Guided tour

EN, FR, NL - min. 15 people (please book ahead +32 84 22 21 03).

90 People maximum

Person in charge

Claudine Cassagnes

Telephone

084/22.21.03

Email

reservation@malagne.be

T. +32 84 22 21 03

Rue du Coirbois 85 - 5580 Rochefort

www.malagne.be malagne@malagne.be

Facebook

E411 motorway exit 22 (Rochefort) • N4 road, exit Marche • By train: Jemelle railway station (20 min. walk).

