La Boverie houses the collections of the Musée des Beaux-Arts de la Ville de Liège (from the 16th to the 21st century, including works by Ingres, Monet, Picasso, Gauguin, Chagall, Ensor and Magritte), as well as temporary exhibitions of international renown. In the heart of listed parkland, the Museum is housed in the Palais des Beaux-Arts from the 1905 Universal Exhibition, renovated and extended with a glass extension by French architect Rudy Ricciotti in 2016.
