In a magnificent 16th century farmhouse, the museum focuses on the social and economical history of the beautiful Entre-Sambre-et-Meuse region. It tells the story of men and women, craftsmen, farmers and villagers...

The permanent exhibition offers an insight into traditional rural trades and features hundreds of tools used by carpenters, clog makers, coopers, blacksmiths, cartwrights and cobblers. The guided tour includes a demonstration of ancient clog-making machines (carving and sanding). Please book ahead for guided group tours.

Free admission to the museum on the 1st Sunday of the month.

Clog making demonstration and guided tour of the permanent exhibition (in French only) on last Sunday of the month at 15.30.

Temporary exhibition.

Educational workshops for groups subject to prior booking (3-18 years), including bread making, leather making, blacksmithing, rope making, candle making and old-fashioned soup making - in French only.

Cash payments only accepted. Invoices can be made out for groups.

Shop including selection of books.
